Section 12: Cell Phone Use

In order to preserve the privacy of individuals and to monitor the noise level within the library, cell phone use should be limited to designated areas. Cell phone users are asked to turn their phones off, or set on silent mode, when using the library. Any conversation that is disturbing to others is prohibited and should a warning be ignored, the patron can be asked to leave the library for the rest of the day.

Revised: _____October 9, 2006_____